Patient Care Mission

Any animal under our care will be treated with compassion as if it were one of our own. Every effort will be made to ensure your pet’s needs are met while we provide a safe and trusted place for them to visit. If your pet should become ill during their stay, it is our policy to treat them medically. Every effort will be made to notify you and provide an estimate for cost of care. However, immediate care will be provided without notification if necessary in the event of an emergency at owner’s expense.

For non-emergency medical issues notated while boarding:

Please treat my pet as required; you do not need to call me for permission

Please Do NOT perform any diagnostics or treatments without my consent
Please make sure we have appropriate contact numbers for you

Personal Items Policy

It is our intention to provide an environment of comfort, as well as safety, for our boarding patients. We provide blankets, bedding, bowls, etc. that are easy to maintain, clean, and sterilize for all patients.

If you choose to bring other items from home such as toys, bones, blankets or bedding, they can be used for your pet. We will make every effort to protect your belongings and return them back to you at the end of your pet’s stay. However, these items can be “misplaced” or may be returned in lesser condition than how they arrived. Please do not leave any items that cannot be easily replaced. East Coweta is not responsible for any personal items left.
